As a mom I saw the need of my own children. I didn't know how to help until I did the Wordworks Parent programme. It really opened my eyes to see how easy it is to teach through play.

When I started helping other kids with reading, it was shocking to see how great the need was for parental assistance. When I was asked to be co-ordinator, I eagerly accepted realising that it would be rewarding as well as challenging.

When I met the Wordworks team; Shelley, Sue and Ruth, I was inspired. To have such truly amazing mentors who always encourage, uplift, teach and are sincere. I am blessed to serve under such great examples of love and dedication.
